WELCOME!

It's our 28th season and we have big news! Since our inaugural 1999 year, we have been known as Great Music on Sundays @5. Our new name is *Great Music Provincetown as we continue to present concerts on Sundays at 5pm and on a new day and time: Saturdays at 6pm.

Our 12-concert schedule begins on Sunday June 21 and wraps up on Saturday December 5. All concerts are presented at the Unitarian Universalist Meeting House of Provincetown (236 Commercial Street), one of the finest acoustic concert halls on Cape Cod. The UU sanctuary's magnificent historic and rare trompe l'oeil walls and ceiling create an inspiring setting for our Broadway ensemble concerts and our "Music without Borders" series of events. Our concerts feature the 1928 Steinway Model B concert grand piano and the historic 1850 Holbrook tracker organ.

The concert hall is air conditioned in the summer and heated in the winter. On a hot summer day in Provincetown, we are the best place to be. The humidity is comfortably low, the atmosphere is refreshing and pleasant, and the live music experience is sublime.

For nearly three decades we have presented more than 385 concerts with hundreds of musicians and thousands of concertgoers. Our YouTube channel has more than 20 archived concert films and videos for free viewing 24/7.

There is something for everyone at Great Music Provincetown! Let's keep the music alive... together!

Join us for an extraordinary special performance as we travel back to the end of 1939 to an imaginary sound stage with a live audience for a radio program featuring an ON AIR light, the memorable welcome chime, an announcer, popular songs of the era, commercials, radio sound effects and a stellar ensemble. We'll be seeing you!

a tale of two prodigies

String Quartet in Eb major Fanny Mendelssohn

String Quartet in F minor Felix Mendelssohn

The Garrison String Quartet

Tyler Michael James cello Sachin Shukla viola

Matthew Vera violin Bryce Martin violin

Fanny Mendelssohn's colorful and deeply romantic String Quartet in Eb minor shines the spotlight on a gifted composer whose work was stifled during her lifetime. Her music is complimented by brother Felix's reaction to her death in his stormy String Quartet in F minor. Their music and lifelong connection are a fascinating artistic legacy of creativity and tragedy. The concert also features Devin Cholodenko's new composition "Cracks in the Sky".

memory, tradition & transformation
Ralph Vaughan Williams & Béla Bartók
Scotland, Hungary, Romania & Bulgaria

Craig W. Combs piano Peter Kendall Clark baritone
Monika Veress clarinet John Thomas piano

Ralph Vaughan Williams' Songs of Travel set to poetry of Robert Louis Stevenson traces the traveler's inner life alongside the road. Moving from youthful confidence into deeper reflection, love and memory and the passage of time arrive at a final sense of what endures – and what is left behind for posterity. Béla Bartók's Hungarian and Romanian folk dances capture the rhythms, color and spirit of traditional music collected by the composer during his journeys to remote villages. Bulgaria's greatest composer Pancho Vladigerov created a lifetime of music with traditional melodies woven into piano, vocal and symphonic forms.

This concert traces the shifting interplay of light and shadow across French, German and Russian traditions. In the intimate setting of Provincetown, music can take on a special dimension. The changing light of the Outer Cape, so immediate, so alive, finds its echo in the music of Haydn, Glière and Saint-Saëns. Each composition reveals a different facet of radiance and reflection. Listen closely to the spaces between, the colors within, and the quiet ways that music illuminates what words cannot.
